

Discovering the Archaeologists of Europe 2014 (DISCO 2014)

DISSEMINATION PLAN – ESTONIA

Period	Dissemination activity	Where	Target audience	Arranging team member(s)	Notes
7 Dec 2012	Introductory presentation about the project	Tallinn	50 people	Nele Kangert and Doris Pavlov	The presentation will be held in the course of the Annual Meeting of Archaeologists. The presentation has been recorded in the official agenda.
March 2013	Introduction of the project	Taevaskoja (Põlva County)	60 people	Nele Kangert, Ingrid Ulst, Doris Pavlov and Viire Pajuste	Introduction will be made as a short presentation after the presentations of the official agenda of the Spring School of Archaeologists (organised by MTÜ Arheopolis)
April-November 2013	Introduction of the project in form of private conversations and communication	Tartu and Tallinn	30 people	Viire Pajuste and Nele Kangert	Communication will be carried out at the University of Tartu and Harju County Museum
December 2013	Presentation about the project interim results	Tallinn	50 people	Nele Kangert and Doris Pavlov	The presentation will be held in the course of the Annual Meeting of Archaeologists. The presentation has been recorded in the official agenda.
March 2014	Introduction of the project results	Taevaskoja (Põlva County)	60 people	Nele Kangert, Ingrid Ulst, Doris Pavlov and Viire Pajuste	Introduction will be made in the course of the Spring School of Archaeologists (organised by MTÜ Arheopolis)
September 2014	Launch event of the final project report	Tartu	50 people	Project team of Estonia. Project coordinator from York will be invited to participate.	The event shall be carried out in the form of a small conference and the introduction of project results will be followed by some presentations of the target group and, if possible, by the representative of state.
Spring 2014 or beginning of 2015	Article about the project and its results	Journal of Estonian Archaeology		Doris Pavlov	